According to the City of Enid's ordinance "Security Companies and Alarm Systems" Title 3, Chapter 7, all alarm systems are required to be licensed. Any person failing to comply with the provisions of this chapter shall be deemed in violation hereof and shall be subject to the penalty provided herein. Every day that a violation exists shall constitute a separate violation and shall be subject to the full penalty contained herein. Any person violating any provision of this chapter shall, upon conviction thereof, be subject to a fine not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100.00), plus costs, unless otherwise stated.

A warning citation should issue for the first false alarm in a calendar year that is responded to by either the police or fire department. The second false alarm in a calendar year shall be punishable by a fine of one hundred dollars ($100.00). The third false alarm in a calendar year shall be punishable by a fine of two hundred dollars ($200.00). Fourth and subsequent false alarms in a calendar year shall be punishable by a fine of five hundred dollars ($500.00). (Ord. 2012-20, 9-6-2012)
